

Descendants of Jacob Lafayette Harder

Generation No. 1

1. JACOB LAFAYETTE³ HARDER (*JACOB*², *JOHN NICHOLAS*¹) was born November 03, 1827 in Middle Tennessee¹, and died July 18, 1891 in Humboldt Tennessee¹. He married (1) BEEDY JANE UMSTED October 05, 1858 in Humboldt Tennessee¹. She was born February 20, 1833², and died September 23, 1872 in White County Arkansas³. He married (2) LUCRETIA BRINKLEY March 29, 1875 in Gibson County Tennessee³, daughter of NATHAN BRINKLEY and BILLIE ARNOLD. She was born October 22, 1840 in North Carolina⁴, and died October 20, 1917 in Humboldt Tennessee⁵.

Notes for JACOB LAFAYETTE HARDER:

The Tennessee State Archives have Military service records for Jacob L. Harder.

During the War with Mexico, he served as a Private in Co. I, 3rd Regiment, Tennessee Infantry. As of the muster-in roll call of October 2, 1847 in Nashville, Tennessee, he was 20 years of age. He mustered out on July 22, 1848 in Memphis Tennessee.

He also served in Confederate Army during the Civil War. He enlisted as a Sargeant in Company H of the 14th Tennessee Cavalry on July 13, 1863 in Gibson County, Tennessee.

From the fact that he enlisted in Nashville for the War with Mexico, and in Gibson County for the Civil War, it appears that he moved from Nashville to Gibson Co somewhere between those two dates (1848 to 1863). This also coincides with a family history of George Madison Harder, Jacob's brother, which places Jacob in Gibson County in 1850.

Note: Some records refer to Jacob Lafayette Harder as "J. L. Harder" and as "J. Lafayette Harder".

> A note in Lola Harder's genealogy records states: "J L Harder had 3 brothers and one sister, Mrs. Taylor Shaw" Only one brother has so far been identified--George Madison Harder.

Notes for BETTY JANE BARTHOLOMEW:

April 30, 1996: Spoke with Betty. She does not have any family history. She gave her family bible to a grandson. She always called Lola Hudson Harder "Auntie", and was particularly fond of Ralph Harder, who was 2 years older. She had not heard of his death, and was saddened to learn of it. She related that she lived with her parents in Battle Creek, MI for many years, and that Lola and Ralph came for visits every year or two. Their family always looked forward to these visits with great excitement, and children (she included) were strongly cautioned to be on their best behavior. She said Ralph was always "such a dignified man".

Her 3 sons are still living. From Oldest to youngest they are: James Gonya Jr, living in FL, Dick Gonya, living in Memphis, TN. Dick has suffered a heart attack. And Joe Gonya, who also lives in FL.

-She said hre Mother's full name was Berta Lola Harder rather than Berta Lu.

-She also verified that Oma and Lola Ruth Bartholomew married brothers, Ruth to Charlie, the oldest Segar brother, and Oma to Max.

May 13, 1996. In a note from Phyllis Harder, Lola Harder and Cuba Barton drove to Battle Creek for these visits, sharing the driving.
